

Documentary Storyboard Form:

Concept: _____

Names: _____

Notes - information relating to narration, listing sources and plan for this time slot:	Sketch/Visual - what will you show us during this time - sketch it here:	Primary Source - what source will you have or look for to reinforce each era?	Narrative - what will be said during this time - write it out:
Opening/Title (15 seconds):		*optional
Thesis Statement - Written below (30 seconds):		*optional
Introduction and description of concept and overview of the Historical time period you are covering (1 min):		*optional

Message/Heart of the Story (1 min): Prior to the Civil War (1850-1860)
Message/Heart of the Story (1 min): Civil War & Reconstruction (1860-1877)			*required
Message/Heart of the Story (1 min): Industrial America & Westward Expansion (1878-1914)			*required
Message/Heart of the Story (1 min): World War I, Roaring Twenties, & World War II (1914-1945)			*required
Message/Heart of the Story (1 min): Modern United States (1945-2008)			*required

Notes - information relating to narration, listing sources and plan for this time slot:	Sketch/Visual - what will you show us during this time - sketch it here:	Primary Source - what source will you have or look for to reinforce each era?	Narrative - what will be said during this time - write it out:
Long Term Impact/looking forward (1 minute): How does this concept and its existence in History (past, present and future) guide us from here?		*optional
Conclusion (30 seconds): Why does this study matter? Why does acknowledging the machine of this concept matter to us today?		*optional
End Title/Credits (15 seconds):		*optional

Additional Notes – Who, in your group, is Responsible for each part of the documentary – List their names below:

Opening/Title:	Thesis Statement:	Historical Background:	Message of the Story:
Short Term Impact:	Long Term Impact:	Conclusion:	End Title/Credits:

Transitions need to link the different historical periods together. They will create flow and show how the concept flows from one period of time to the next. How did the concept work as a catalyst for the next era? Plan a 10 second or less transition to go between each different “Heart of the story/message” section of your storyboard.

Pre civil war to Civil War & Reconstruction
Reconstruction to Industrialization & Westward Expansion
Westward Expansion to WWI, 20s, & WWII
WWII to Modern day

Additional Notes (write in the space below):

Documentary Script Writing – Your Message to Washington:

What part of the Documentary is this? *See storyboard for hints!	Who is speaking? *Name(s) of people talking.	What are they saying? *This is written out word for word.	What is the image/shot? *Detailed description of what we/the audience will be seeing.	How long will this last? *Note the number of seconds.
Opening/Title	Silence Juan	-Open with silence -"Pollution today's problem, tomorrow's crisis – a look into the cause, the concern, the impact and the solution of stopping pollution."	Camera will show a beautiful shot of pure nature, slowly fading into a picture of a landfill. Then the title: Saving our Environment: Ending Pollution appears on the screen bold and in red	8-10 sec. 10 sec.

What part of the Documentary is this? *See storyboard for hints!	Who is speaking? *Name(s) of people talking.	What are they saying? *This is written out word for word.	What is the image /shot? *Detailed description of what we/the audience will be seeing.	How long will this last? *Note the number of seconds.

What part of the Documentary is this? *See storyboard for hints!	Who is speaking? *Name(s) of people talking.	What are they saying? *This is written out word for word.	What is the image /shot? *Detailed description of what we/the audience will be seeing.	How long will this last? *Note the number of seconds.