

WWI, Roaring Twenties/Harlem Renaissance,
Great Depression, WWII (1890-1945)
Project Guideline

Name: _____

Description: This project encompasses four parts due at four separate dates. Below you will find the descriptions covering of the expectation.

1. Timeline

Create a timeline with a minimum of 10 events covering Imperialism to World War I. The timeline needs to have 4 events about Imperialism and a minimum of 6 events about World War I.

_____ Construct a timeline of 10 significant events from 1890-1918

Graded on 5 criteria

1. Accuracy 2. Organized 3. Creativity 4. Followed Directions 5. Quality Work

Due Date: January 18, 2019

2. Artistic

This component of the project must reflect the time period of the 1920s. This time period reflected advancements of the arts; Harlem Renaissance, motion picture development, entertainment, and fashion.

Project Choices:

_____ Make a model representing this time period

_____ Make a diorama of a scene from the time period

_____ Create a Scrapbook from a person recording history from the 1920s

_____ Create a video of a breaking news segment on the Roaring Twenties

_____ Write a diary of someone from the time period. Must have 5 entries. 1 entry is 1 well thought out 1 diary page.

Graded on 5 criteria

1. Accuracy 2. Organized 3. Creativity 4. Followed Directions 5. Quality Work

Due Date: February 1, 2019

3. Brown Paper Bag Report

This component will have an additional presentation grade.

____ Students will be reading a fiction or non-fiction work where the setting is the Great Depression. You are responsible for carefully selecting 5 items that represent your book tying to the Great Depression. All items will have to fit in a brown lunch bag (not provided).

Students will be presenting their bags with their 5 items explaining their relevance to their book and this time period (Great Depression) to their class.

Graded on 5 criteria

1. Accuracy 2. Organized 3. Creativity 4. Followed Directions 5. Quality Work

Due Date: February 15, 2019

4. Living Wax Museum

____ Students will be responsible for a three minute presentation in which you will portray your historically relevant personality of World War II. Students need to research information from database resources, read biographies, write and edit timelines, write and memorized scripts, and create work-cited references.

Attached is a list of approved people for you to choose. Please select three names you would like to portray for this project and turn the names in on a sheet of notebook paper by Friday.

Research Paper Due Date: March 1, 2019

Video Presentation Due Date: March 7, 2019

We will be watching ALL videos on March 7.